

Adi Kailash & Om Parvat Yatra (Ex-Delhi)

Journey to the Abode of Shiva & Shakti

“Adi Kailash, the divine abode of Lord Shiva and Maa Parvati, is one of the sacred Panch Kailash as per Hindu mythology. Nestled deep within the Himalayas, it is not just a destination—it is a sacred energy field where the soul awakens and the spirit finds peace.

“Alongside it stands Om Parvat, where the naturally formed symbol “ॐ” on the mountain face is a divine spectacle that cannot be explained, only experienced. Just a glimpse of these sacred sites is said to purify the inner self, awaken cosmic consciousness, and infuse one’s being with divine energy.

“Legend has it that Ravana, the mighty king of Lanka, meditated here and was blessed by Mahadev with the strength of 20 arms and the intellect of 10 heads. Such is the power and sanctity of this land.

Trip Highlights:

- Visit to Patal Bhuvaneshwar, the mystical underground cave temple believed to be connected to all four dhams
- Jageshwar Dham Temple Complex, with over 100 ancient Shiva temples nestled in deodar forests
- Stay in scenic Himalayan villages like Kuti, Kalapani, Gunji—near the Indo-Tibetan border
- Experience Bugyals, Himalayan meadows, and flowing rivers in their raw spiritual beauty
- Scenic drive through the valleys of Kumaon with snow-capped peaks, waterfalls, and forests
- Spiritual energy & meditation points at sites associated with Ravana's penance and Mahadev's blessings
- Simple & sattvic meals during the yatra, arranged for comfort and purity.
- Experienced guides and permits included, including Inner Line Permit (ILP) for border areas.

Day 01 : Delhi to Kathgodam (Approx. 290 KM / 7–8 hours)

Meet the group at a designated point in Delhi around 10:00 AM. The tour guide will welcome everyone with a warm smile. Once all group members have arrived, the Adi Kailash Yatra will begin with the journey from Delhi to Kathgodam in a comfortable air-conditioned vehicle. Upon reaching Kathgodam, check into the hotel and spend the rest of the evening at leisure. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel

Day 02 : Kathgodam to Pithoragarh (196 KM / Approx. 7 hours, Altitude: 1627m)

After arriving at Kathgodam, freshen up and have breakfast at Bhimtal. Begin your drive toward Pithoragarh. On the way, visit Neem Karoli Baba Ashram at Kainchi Dham, Chitai Golu Temple, and the ancient temple complex at Jageshwar. Enjoy lunch en route. Reach Pithoragarh by evening. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel. .

Day 03 : Pithoragarh to Dharchula (93 KM / Approx. 3 hours, Altitude: 940m)

After breakfast, the group will depart for Dharchula. Situated at an altitude of 940 meters above sea level, Dharchula is a small and scenic town nestled in the lap of the Kumaon Himalayas. Surrounded by mountains on all sides, Dharchula is divided into two parts by the Kali River — one side in India, the other in Nepal.

Traveling along the Indo-Nepal border, the group will enter restricted areas of Kumaon, for which Inner Line Permits will be arranged upon arrival. In the free time, travelers may explore the Nepal Bazaar on the Nepal side of Dharchula. Dinner and overnight stay will be at the hotel in Dharchula.

Day 04 : Dharchula to Gunji (Approx. 70 KM / 3–4 hours, Altitude: 3200m)

After breakfast, proceed towards Gunji, a small village located near the India-Tibet border at an altitude of 3200 meters. Gunji serves as the base for visiting both Adi Kailash and Om Parvat. The route to Gunji passes through scenic Himalayan villages including Chialekh, Garbyang, and Napalchu, offering breathtaking views of mountains, rivers, and waterfalls along the way.

Gunji is also a key point on the route of the Kailash Mansarovar Yatra organized by the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India, via the Lipulekh Pass. Lunch will be served en route. On arrival at Gunji, food and accommodation will be provided in a guesthouse or homestay on a shared basis.

Meals Included: Vegetarian Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Accommodation: Guest House (Sharing basis)

Day 05 : Gunji – Adi Kailash – Gunji (Approx. 65 KM Drive + 3–4 KM Trek, Altitude: 4497m)

Today, the group will start early from Gunji and travel to Jyolingkong (4762 meters) in local jeeps. From here, a short 3–4 km trek will lead to Parvati Sarovar (also known as Gauri Kund) and the sacred Adi Kailash Temple.

At the temple, pilgrims can perform pooja and meditation in the presence of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Many also choose to take a holy dip in Parvati Kund and collect its sacred water. The serene and spiritually charged atmosphere here is deeply moving.

On the way to Jyolingkong, the group will pass and witness several spiritually significant peaks and landmarks including Kunti Parvat, Pandav Fort, Brahma Parvat, Pandav Parvat, and Parvati Mukut. After the darshan and rituals, the group will return to Gunji by evening.

Meals Included: Vegetarian Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Accommodation: Guest House (Sharing basis)

Day 06 : Gunji – Om Parvat – Gunji / Nabhi (Approx. 22 KM Drive, Altitude: 4246m)

After breakfast, the journey continues towards Om Parvat, a sacred peak where the natural formation of snow creates the holy symbol "ॐ" (Om) — a deeply revered sight for devotees. Traveling around 22 kilometers from Gunji, the group will reach Nabhidang (4340 meters), the official viewpoint for Om Parvat.

Spend some peaceful time here in meditation and spiritual reflection, soaking in the divine presence of the mountain.

On the return journey to Gunji, the group will visit important religious and scenic spots including:

- Kala Pani – known for the revered Kali Temple
- Ved Vyas Gufa – believed to be the meditation site of sage Ved Vyas
- Sheshnag Parvat – a majestic mountain associated with mythology

Return to Gunji by evening for dinner and overnight stay.
